Atlantic Conference and make a run for the conference championship. We are led by our captains and a talented group of skilled position players who are very athletic.

Head Coach Quote: "We just want to compete, I feel like teams will be sleeping on us but this is the year for us to be known as one of those teams to watch out for because we are capable and have the potential to do some damage within the league. We just have to execute and stay focus in order to make this season the start of something special." - Team Captain, Jamyl Barnes
