2021 AWARDS WINNERS

Bowl Game MVP

Kellyn Gerenstein QB
Ohio State University

Kellyn was the leader behind Ohio State's championship season, topping it off with an MVP performance in the NCFA National Title Game.

Offensive POY

Chase Soper QB
George Mason

Coming in as a transfer from James Madison, Soper was absolutely unstoppable this season. He led the NCFA in every meaningful passing category and accounted for a total of 36 TDs this season. The Mason offense was among the leagues most dominant in large part of Soper's performance this season.

Defensive POY

Gabriel Gibson
George Mason

Gabe was the complete package this fall for the George Mason defense. He led all NCFA players in sacks and forced fumbles. He allowed little room for QBs to breath this season from his defensive end position. Gibson looks to the future after deservedly earning this honor for his incredible season.

5

President of the Year

Dylan Brown
University of Toledo

The Toledo program was supposed to kickoff their inaugural season in 2020. After COVID-19 halted the 2020 season, Dylan continued to run the club effectively. In 2021, Brown realized his goal of running a successful club football program, leading Toledo to a 3-3 record and even cracking the top 5 of the Power Rankings at one point this season.

Coach of the Year

Kevin Adkins
Gordon State College

Taking over the HC role for the Highlanders in their first NCFA season, Adkins was able to take the South Atlantic crown by dethroning #1 Columbus State in their Conference Championship match-up while leading one of the most dominating defenses in the NCFA in 2021.

Conference Coordinator of the Year

Milan Gotcher
North Atlantic

Milan Gotcher came back into the North Atlantic Conference Coordinator role this year leading the behind the scenes work with the NAC and also taking on a role with the NCFA Top 10 Voting Committee. His dedication to those roles helped make the 2021 season a great one
